

Awards for students studying at ICHM

Dux of Year 1

This is the Cameron Sykes Award. It is named after Cameron, top Year 1 student in ICHM in 1994, who sadly died March 31 2002 after a long illness. It is funded by both the Sykes family and ICHM. It is awarded to the top student in Year 1 who returns to Year 2. It is worth $1,000, and is awarded each semester at Course Commencement Ceremony

UHAK Channel Award

This is given by ICHM's principal Korean Representative, UHAK Chanel. It is awarded to the top Korean passport-holder based on Year 1 results who returns to Year 2. It is worth $1,000, and is awarded each semester at Course Commencement Ceremony.

The Luke James Food and Beverage Prize

This is awarded each semester at the returning Course Commencement Ceremony to the top student in Year 1 Food and Beverage subjects who returns to Year 2. This prize worth $500 is presented by ICHM Graduate, Luke James, a successful, local restaurateur.

Dux of Year 2

This is the AHA Award. It was given in 2000 for a ten year term by Australian Hotels Association. It is funded jointly by AHA and ICHM. It is awarded to the top student in Year 2 who returns to Year 3. It is worth $1,000, and is awarded each semester at Course Commencement Ceremony.

Dux of Year 3

This is presently awarded by ICHM alone. It is worth $1,000, and is awarded each semester at the End of Course Ceremony.

KOSA Degree Scholarship

This is awarded to the top Korean student entering the bachelor degree. It is only open to Korean students who studied the SHA program. The candidates are Korean students entering the degree; they may have entered directly from SHA, or they may have taken a break of 6-12-18 months. It is worth $1,000, and is given each semester at Course Commencement Ceremony.

Dux of Degree Year

This is the PCI Award. It is awarded once a year. It is worth $1000, and given by Angas Travel –PCI. It is a Travel Scholarship, and the travel must be booked through Angas Travel. It is awarded at graduation .

Gjl 30th July 2008.

July ICHM Prizes